

Within the MWNF programme on the occasion of Ramadan 2025

The new Museum With No Frontiers online exhibition

THE TABLE IS SET Food Traditions and Legacies in the Islamic World

https://exhibitions.museumwnf.org/the_table_is_set/en/

Now online.

Detail of Kirman carpet, Museum of Arts and Crafts, Zagreb, Croatia

The exhibition explores the Islamic world through its rich food and culinary traditions. It aims to deepen understanding of Islamic culture and promote cross-cultural dialogue.

What sets this exhibition apart is its uniquely international approach, with a curatorial team drawn from diverse cultural, professional, and academic backgrounds.

The exhibition will be presented within an

International Online Press Conference

on

Tuesday 25 March 2025 at 11 AM CET

(London 10 AM, Doha/Istanbul 1 PM, Oman 2 PM)

We invite you to join on PC, Mac, iPad or Android via this link

<https://us02web.zoom.us/j/83427094737>

No registration is needed!

Speakers

Adriano Napoli, Islamic Art Curator, Museum of Civilisations, Rome (Welcome)

Michael H. Faber, President AVICOM

Eva Schubert, Chair and CEO, Museum With No Frontiers

Dina Turkieh (University of Leicester), Curator, 'The Table Is Set'

Nael Chami (La Sapienza University, Rome), Curator, 'The Table Is Set'

Moderation: Mehmet Kahyaoglu (Yasar University, Izmir), Curator 'The Table Is Set'

Kindly note that the press conference will be video recorded; by requesting to speak you give your consent to the recording.

All statements will be in English. Questions can be asked in Arabic, French, German, Italian, Spanish and Turkish.

We thank the Museum of Civilisations in Rome, one of our co-founding Partners, for hosting us.

Also on behalf of our Partners we thank the fantastic team that made this exhibition possible.

For further information office@museumwnf.net